

ParlaBox PBX Software Certified Reseller Program

Do you want to become a reseller?

ParlaBox reseller program is for individuals or organizations who want to sell phone systems to their clients. Our reseller program is intended for equipment manufacturers or programming designers and developers who construct and offer products as well as solutions complimenting and further expanding our ParlaBox open-source PBX product and our ecosystem.

The ParlaBox management team, together with LeadingQuest LLC, acknowledges the need for quality deployment of the ParlaBox open-source PBX system and aims to ensure that both end-users and product resellers get the appropriate training prior to deployment of a system or selling a product. This further guarantees the success of each ParlaBox implementation as well as the success of every product sold.

Benefits of A Certified Reseller

Increase profit margins. ParlaBox sets you apart from the rest! With the right training that equips our resellers, we make sure that you know your competitors, their strengths and their weaknesses. Most importantly, we make sure that you have the right tools to outshine them in all aspects.

Make referrals and Benefit from them. At ParlaBox, we cultivate an environment where resellers and manufacturers can benefit and help each other. When you make referrals, you are introducing them to an ecosystem where you and your referral can get support not just from manufacturers but also from other resellers.

Direct developer and manufacturer support. ParlaBox provides a venue where you can get all the help that you need from both developers and manufacturers, to create and sell your products.

Access to training and certification programs. And get discounts on courses and trainings. ParlaBox offers a wide variety of training courses, web-based training modules and certification programs that can help you explore the potentials of open-source PBX systems as well as the ParlaBox PBX Software Suite. And since you are part of the ParlaBox family, we provide special discounts to our certified product resellers when availing any of our training courses and modules.

Access to marketing programs. ParlaBox provides consultation for developers and resellers. As developers, you can avail of consultation and technical support packages that comes with purchasing the ParlaBox PBX Software Suite, or when you buy any of our Paid Support Plans. For certified ParlaBox PBX Software reseller, we provide access to different marketing plans that you can use.

Pre-sale and post-sale support. ParlaBox helps you ensure your customers that your product is the right choice and priced just right. We help you recognize your customer's needs and turn their needs into products.
